VILLIAM FIRST

Breaks World's Record Mark in 2:04 Pace at Comstock Park.

FRANK BOGASH, JR., WINS

Captures Free-for-All Pace from Earl. Jr.-2:12 Trot to Lassie McGregor.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 5.-In the most sensational race ever paced the bay colt William today won the 2:04 pace at Comstock Park. He not only reduced at comstock Park. He not only reduced the world's record for four-year-olds to $100, but paced the fastest three-heat race in history, the fastest second heat and set a new record for Comstock Park.

William was a $100 to $30 favorite over the field. Dr. Burns, jr., raced him all the way in the first, and the colt won in $200 1-2. Walter Cochato gave him a whiri in the second, and again William. whiri in the second, and again William was first at the wire in 2:00 flat. Cochato broke in the third, and Dr. Burns, jr., chased William out in 2:02.1-2.

The free-for-all pace was won by Frank

Bogash, fr., after losing the first heat to Earl, jr. The $5,000 2:12 trot produced a great contest. The favorite Lassie Moegor won the first two heats, but the next two went to the Chicago stallion, king Ciansman. In the fifth there was a great finish between King Ciansman, Marta Bellini and Lassie McGregor, the latter getting the decision by a head.
